

January 2022 Bible Reading Plan

Malachi is probably the last prophet until the time of Christ, some 400 years later. He is confronting a people just going through the motions of their faith and doubting God's love and justice.

The Gospel of Matthew presents Jesus as Israel's long-awaited Messiah who brings the kingdom of God to earth and fulfills the prophesied promises of God from the past. Notice how often Matthew quotes from the Old Testament to create a bridge for his Jewish audience. Yet, Matthew closes with the Great Commission (28:18-20), which indicates Jesus the Messiah is available to all nations, both Jew and Gentile. Matthew probably wrote his Gospel in the 50s or 60s a.d.
