

November 2023 Bible Reading Plan

1 Chronicles – written from a priestly and spiritual perspective in contrast to a prophetic and moral viewpoint, 1 Chronicles begins with the royal line of David, then traces the spiritual significance of David's righteous reign.

2 Peter – Peter's audience is the same as 1 Peter, but here the exhortation is to those who are considering defecting from the community of believers. He reminds them of the timeless truths of the faith, and exhorts them to continue growing toward Christian maturity.

Hosea – a prophet called by God to prophesy during Israel's last hours, just as Jeremiah would be called years later to prophesy to the crumbling kingdom of Judah. Here we have a story of one-sided love and faithfulness – between a prophet and his faithless wife and Jehovah and His faithless people.
