

May 2025 Bible Reading Plan

Judges – In Judges, we read of seven distinct cycles of a disobedient and idolatrous people who are frequently defeated because of their rebellion against God. Notice how the “cycle of sin” begins as the nation’s spiritual temperature grows steadily colder.

1, 2, and 3 John – in 1 John the apostle discusses fellowship with God; in 2 John he forbids fellowship with false teachers; and in 3 John he encourages fellowship with Christian brothers. Godly character, love, and loyalty to the truth are never easy, but they bring God’s richest commendation.

Joel – devastation brought on by a locust invasion is a precursor of what is to come by an army invasion unless heartfelt repentance comes.
